WIN! A VIP TRIP TO IBIZA FOR THE CLOSING PARTIES

IT SEEMS LIKE only yesterday we were weeing our pants about the opening parties, and yet now it's almost time to get booking for the closing shindigs. Well book ye not!

Mixmag have joined forces with www.virtualibiza.com and Icon Apartments to offer you the ultimate VIP break to Ibiza in September – just in time for the closing parties.

The winner will get a pair of return flights to Ibiza courtesy of Ibiza Travel Shop. We'll pick you up from the airport in an Icon Hummer and take you to your Icon Apartment. Over the next three days your Icon

Hummer will chauffeur you to a sunset dinner at Mambo, to a private boat to neighbouring island, Formentera, and out for an exclusive VIP night on the Mixmag Terrace at Cream Ibiza, Amnesia.

HOW TO ENTER

Simply email your funniest Ibiza photo by September 10 to mixmag@mixmag.net with the subject heading IBIZA COMP. The best one, according to the Mixmag crew, wins. All entries may be printed. Usual Mixmag rules apply (see p129 and mixmag.net for full terms and conditions). You'll need to be able to travel from September 20th-23rd and get yourself to and from the departure airport.

Warehouse give out goodies across the island

IF YOU'RE IN Ibiza over the August Bank Holiday, you might want to pop into We Love Sundays at Space to check out the Warehouse party – Warehouse being the clothing company, of course.

They're joining Smokin Jo's Nude party on the terrace and will be giving away loads of cool clubbing clobber, perfect for glamping up your holiday. What's more, over the course of the weekend the Warehouse Sunseeker will be dropping anchor at a handful of beaches to give out goodies to bathing beauties.
