

Ibiza chic

Corrie's Michelle Keegan, 21, hits the party island and shares her holiday secrets

Dress, £30, American Apparel; bow hairclip, £12, Johnny Loves Rosie; shoes, £70, Moda In Pelle at vivaladiva.com

In my holiday wardrobe... there are bright bikinis from Topshop, maxi dresses from H&M, and flip flops. And I do like a bit of bling. I wear a lot of jewellery, I'm a girly girl like that. Always the big hoop earrings.

My best ever holiday... was to Ibiza when I was much younger with my brother, my parents and our family friends. It sticks in my head because it was the last holiday we had when Mum and Dad were still together. And the other one was to Ibiza again with my mates two years ago – it's all about Ibiza for me.

On holiday, I like to... do everything. Sometimes I'm like, 'Let's go out and go for it.' And other times I'm like, 'I'm too tired, I can't be bothered.' I do like a good all-night party with the girls sometimes, and I love sightseeing and imagining what things were like 600 years ago.

My biggest holiday disaster... was when I had really bad sunstroke in Spain a few years ago. It was horrible, I missed out on a whole week's holiday. Also, I went to the Costa Blanca with my Dad and the apartment was covered in cockroaches. That was bad.

My holiday romances... I've had a few. When I was 14 or 15 I'd go on holiday, meet a guy, get attached for a week, be dead upset when he went home, then be fine within a few days. I've met a few boys from Newcastle, and a Liverpoolian. You know what it's like – your heart is all broken and you've only known him for three days.

My holiday beauty essentials... are Piz Buin sunscreen, and then oil for the last few days when I'm really trying hard with the tan. My Grandma is Spanish, so I'm quite dark skinned anyway – I don't tend to burn. I also use Kérastase leave-in conditioner for my hair, lip balm, Elizabeth Arden Eight Hour Cream and Clarins moisturiser. Make-up-wise, it's just tinted moisturiser, bronzer, mascara and a bit of lip gloss. You want to look more fresh on holiday, not caked in make-up.

My iPod summer playlist... features a lot of R'n'B, plus I like all the old stuff like Elvis Presley, Stevie Wonder and The Beach Boys. And girly tunes like Cyndi Lauper's Girls Just Wanna Have Fun.

My holiday reading... is The Secret by Rhonda Byrne. It's a self-help book about having a positive state of mind and getting what you want out of life. It's really big in America.

● Michelle stayed at the Hotel La Ventana in Ibiza Town. Rooms start from 100 Euros per night: navilaibiza@yahoo.es, tel 00 34 971 39 05 73 ● Icon Ibiza is a luxury VIP service that offers everything from luxury apartments and chauffeur-driven hummers to VIP tables at clubs and restaurants: iconibiza.com ● International Villas offer the most desirable villas in Ibiza, together with a concierge service: internationalvillas.net/00 44 1799 516971/info@internationalvillas.net

Words: Lara Kilner. Fashion: Charlotte Adsett assisted by Carly Stevens. Photography: Vincent Dolman. Hair and make-up: Luella using MAC Pro and Sebastian Hair Care. Hummer courtesy of iconibiza.com. Thanks to 365-productions.com

T-shirt, £6, and skirt, £35, both Topshop; clutch, £45, Gladrags at vivaladiva.com; ring, £4, and wedges, £25, both New Look

Bomber jacket, £120, Diesel at House of Fraser; dress, £24, American Apparel; wedges, £25, Giles at New Look

Dress, £12, Primark; belt, £10, New Look; shoes, £70, Moda In Pelle at vivaladiva.com; bangles, £4.50 for set, New Look

Bandeau top, £10, American Apparel; skirt, £25, Limited Collection at Marks & Spencer; sunglasses, £8, asos.com; shoes, £70, Moda In Pelle at vivaladiva.com

● For where to buy, see p62